Editorial

It's almost here - Sunday 15th July is the 2018 Bersted Parish Festival! The event will be held on the Jubilee Field off Chalcraft Lane from 10:00am to 16:00 pm. Thanks to generous sponsorship from both Berkeley and Linden Homes, plus a wide selection of local businesses, this year's event promises to be the largest and most entertaining we have ever held! For the grown ups we've a 4 hour programme of live music including a diverse range of local talent such as the Barnham Ukulele Group, the band of the Nautical Training Corps and the Sussex Steel Band. We've also got a large range of stalls featuring local charities, voluntary groups and home crafters so there's something for everyone. For the kids there will be performances by popular children's entertainer & magician Nick Clark and Twilight Mascots (who look an awful lot like Paw Patrol!) plus bouncy castle (sponsored by your Parish Council), giant inflatable slide and zorbing (you'll have to look that one up!) Weather permitting we hope to have a radio controlled model flying display above the adjoining fields and for the big boys we're expecting a number of classic cars and restored military vehicles to be on show. The event will also include a wide choice of catering facilities including a licensed bar! As ever, all proceeds go to a worthy local cause and this year's chosen charity is the Sussex Snowdrop Trust who help children with life threatening illnesses and those who are terminally ill. So, if you're looking for something worthwhile to do that day (and can't afford to take out a bank loan to buy tickets for the Goodwood Festival of Speed!) why not come along - YOU'D BE MAD TO MISS IT!
